Boston, Sept. 19. 1873.

Mr. Wm Lloyd Garrison,

Dear Sir, We open & dedicate our New Parker Memorial Meeting House on Sunday morning next.
Rev. Samuel Longfellow is to deliver the dedicatory Discourse.
We are inviting a few friends to be present on the occasion & occupy, each of them, after the Discourse, a few minutes of the time, with some words of good cheer or whatever may be appropriate to the time.
We should be delighted to have you among the number. To see you among us would be a reminder of the Days at Music Hall, so eventful, when Mr. Parker occupied the desk & you were at times with us as one of the listeners

Yours truly
John L. Haynes
